

Climate Star 2007 – Winning projects

Category 1: up to 10,000 inhabitants

- Wieselburg (Austria, 4,000 inhabitants)
Fantastic climate: without gas accelerator across Erlauf Valley
- Zwischenwasser (Austria, 3,200 inhabitants)
Sustainable mobility, focusing on 'area-wide speed limit 30 kmh'

Category 2: between 10,000 and 100,000 inhabitants

- Baden AT (Austria, 25,300 inhabitants)
Bicycle traffic plan
- Baden CH (Switzerland, 17,000 inhabitants)
'Badenmobil' mobility management in enterprises
- Esslingen am Neckar (Germany, 91,500 inhabitants)
'Esslingen Net' a sustainable, climate friendly traffic plan
- Karlstad (Sweden, 83,000 inhabitants)
The Echo Action – sustainable life and consumption styles
- Stockerau (Austria, 16,600 inhabitants)
Municipal vehicles with vegetable oil

Category 3: more than 100,000 inhabitants

- Alcalá de Henares (Spain, 204,000 inhabitants)
Alcalá Bici Service: a firm commitment for sustainable transport
- Essen (Germany, 582,100 inhabitants)
Image campaign 'Climate Heroes'
- Ghent (Belgium, 224,000 inhabitants)
Ring the bell for a better environment
- Sheffield (United Kingdom, 520,700 inhabitants)
Emissions impact tool for city traffic

Category extra: associations of local authorities

- Alpine Pearls (21 municipalities from Austria, France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland)
Cross-border sustainable mobility for tourists
- plan-b Mobil (6 municipalities from Austria)
Alternative ways from a to b

Special price Lower Austria

- Echsenbach (Austria, 1,200 inhabitants)
Municipal competition 'climate fruit festival'